

WESTERN KAS. WORLD.

W. S. TILTON, Editor.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 1885.

For District Judge, L. H. PRATT, OF NORTON COUNTY.

Ogallah Primaries.

OGALLAH, Sept. 9, 1885.

In accordance with the call of the County Republican Central Committee, the primary election in this Township will be held on Saturday, October 10, 1885, between the hours of 1 o'clock P. M. and 6:30 P. M.

By order of the Township Central Committee.

C. C. YETTER, Chairman.

Collyer Primaries.

BANNER, TREGO CO., KAN., Sept. 11, 1885.

There being no Township Central Committee in this Township, I, as a member of the County Republican Central Committee, announce that the Republican primaries, which are announced to take place on Saturday, October 10, will be held at the usual voting place in the village of Collyer, from 10 o'clock A. M. until 4 o'clock P. M. of said day.

J. C. BROWN.

S. P. DAVIDSON has been appointed postmaster at Kenneth. One by one the Republican roses fall.

It affords us pleasure to learn that C. H. Chandler has been re-nominated by the Republicans of Linn county, in this state, for sheriff, and Captain A. W. Burton for treasurer. Both are excellent men, and sure of re-election.

The Reveille contains the information that a darkey got shot at Hill City the other day. The climax of interest is hardly reached until we find that he got it at the hardware store for ten cents a pound. P. S.—The charmed spell must be broken. That item is not original Reveille literature. It is too good for that. It is a business local.

The Leader thinks that it is well enough that J. J. Lutz, who had been employed as principal of the school at Lenora, concluded to move on. This is the way he came to go: "On being informed by some one that the boys carried pistols to school, and would shoot flies off the teacher's ear, buttons off his coat, etc., he concluded that he did not want the school. The board was not long in telling him he could go."

KANSAS PATENTS.

S. A. Haseltine & Bro., patent solicitors, Springfield, Missouri, send the World the following list of patents which were issued to citizens of Kansas during the past week:

J. Edgar, Argentine, seal-lock.
L. Hirt, New Kiowa, siphon-starter.
J. Nelson and L. Larson, Concordia, hog-trough.

THE RE-UNION.

Col. P. H. Coney, secretary of the Soldiers' Re-Union Committee at Topeka, writes us that fully fifty thousand old soldiers will be in attendance at the re-union in that city on September 29 and 30 and October 1.

Old soldiers who do not attend will miss a remarkable sight and a thoroughly-enjoyable time. These re-unions bring together the men who prevented the permanent establishment of a second independent government—perhaps of many petty governments—within the limits of the United States of America. When the war was at an end, these men did not part company lightly or without a determination to hold re-unions, where chances would be presented for some of them to meet again. Time has thrown intensity into this feeling. At these re-unions and encampments, no embarrassment is lodged between the participants. A common understanding makes all approachable and akin. For the most obvious of reasons, meetings are possible at this re-union which never can be realized hereafter. The Cycle of Death conducts a steady harvest. At this re-union every state which furnished Union soldiers will have headquarters. By means of a regular system of bulletins, the presence of all old soldiers will be announced, in order that their comrades in all parts of the camp may be enabled to hunt for the possessor of any new name which may strike them. Entertainment will be very low—hardly more than nominal.

How many members of Captain Trego Post will go? Please let us know, so that arrangements can be made for all to go together.

Collyer Post ought to furnish some re-union attendants.

There are old soldiers not belonging to any post who should go.

The railroad fare will be only one cent a mile each way.

At the Re-Union.

STATE OF KANSAS, EX. DEPT., TOPEKA, Sept. 16, 1885.

W. S. Tilton, Esq., Wa-Keeney, Kan.,
MY DEAR SIR:—I am instructed by the Committee on Programme for the soldiers' re-union to notify you that you will be expected to deliver a brief address at the re-union of the soldiers of Iowa, to be held in this city during the general soldiers' state re-union.

Yours very respectfully,
JOHN A. MARTIN,
Chairman of Com.

—Carpentering is rushing.

—James Kelly, jr., has been in the store of late.

—Stone masons are busy, and have work ahead.

—Thomas Caddick has been down the road some of the week.

—The public schools in this district are to begin next Monday.

—W. E. Phillips, the Hiawatha Life Insurance agent, was in town on Monday.

—Will Kelly was at Kansas City the bulk of the front four days of the week.

—Kritchfield has been renovating his store room, greatly to its improvement.

—Mrs. Swayne's millinery shop, in the first building south of Wagner & Co's drug store, is opened.

—Another J. A. Nelson is heard from. He is from Asherville, and is about to open a store in Norton.

—N. Fuller has built a residence for his family just across Washington street from the Union House.

—It is comparatively seldom that the mixed train from the east in the afternoon reaches Wa-Keeney on time.

—Dr. Young has been adding to the dimensions of his residence by filling out the upper story to the same length as the lower.

—We understand that Wesley Marquand and Thomas Roberts, of Ogallah township, are having a fine time breaking their wild horses.

—An auction store is a Wa-Keeney novelty. It is located in a hastily-built shanty which serves as a north leanto at Kritchfield's store building.

—We were much pleased to receive a call on Monday from Mr. L. F. Jones, of Collyer. Mr. Jones is conducting a prosperous real estate business at that place.

—S. H. Roberts, an attorney of LeMars, Iowa, and Mr. L. March, from the same city, are in Wa-Keeney. Both these gentlemen are uncles of J. H. March, the banker.

—The life of Mr. E. S. Millard's advertisement begins with this issue. Mr. Millard has a beautiful location for his business, and he offers a nice stock of goods to the public.

—Miss Jennie Tilton, who taught last fall and spring in the Sheriff Baker district, has been employed to conduct a department of the public schools at Waverly, in this state.

—Several of our soldier boys are going to take in the great re-union at Topeka. We will tell this now, in order that others who are undecided may have a support around which to rally.

—Sam Kelly was away from town several days last week. He accompanied his father to Bismarck Grove, Leavenworth and on around. Sam seldom leaves Wa-Keeney. He is one of the good boys, and deserves all the harmless comfort he can come across.

—Mrs. Hunter and Miss Comfort have opened their millinery and dressmaking establishment, in the E. S. Millard's store building. They are said to have a stock of beautiful goods. Our readers, we suppose, are likely to hear more about it "most any time."

—Mr. J. B. Wheeler, an old subscriber at Oskaloosa, this state, writes: "Hon. W. S. Tilton, Dear Sir: Your heroic efforts to build up the World are very highly appreciated, at least by your humble servant. I could not well dispense with it, were I so disposed."

—Among the number for whom we have within the past week printed letter heads, bill heads, business cards, big placards, posters and tickets, or some one or two of these articles, are the Wa-Keeney Minstrels, Werlich & Kershaw, H. J. Hille, W. S. McGinnis, Hogg & Cowick, B. Wagner & Co. and S. M. Hutzel.

—Our friend, Judge W. H. Prescott, of Salina, was in this county several days this week, buying cattle. It seems to us that the judge looks healthier and happier than he did when he was on the bench. The cattle business is invigorating. It furnishes out-door employment, and makes the intelligent follower of it cheerful.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Allen and their family, who used to live in Wa-Keeney, now reside at Burlington, Coffey county, in this state. It has come to the ears of a World reporter that an uncle of Mrs. Allen's, from the East, visited her recently, and made her a present of sufficient money to purchase very desirable residence property in that city.

—"Bob" Hutchison brings us a bunch of blue-stem grass more than five feet in length to prove that the buffalo grass in his neighborhood, in Glencoe township, is giving way rapidly to the tall grasses. Bob says that five years ago where he gathered this bunch the buffalo grass had full sway. The reign of the tall grasses means successful agriculture.

—A good many Wa-Keeney people have been investing in pretty photographs of their residences or business houses or both. The chance to do this has been presented by two enterprising young men who make their business headquarters at Columbus, Ohio, under the name of T. C. Stark & Bro. The writer hereof purchased a dozen pictures of his residence, which he prizes highly.

The Town of Familton.

The healthy advertisement of Baker & Sons will be seen without any difficulty by the many readers of the Western Kansas World. The success of this firm fully attests their wisdom in demanding the free use of printer's ink. When they have a good thing for sale, they are too wise to keep the knowledge hidden from the people.

This is a proper time for us to give some historical data concerning the new town which has been surveyed and platted within the past week. Its location is in Gove county, midway between Collyer and Buffalo Park, on a beautiful stretch of ground which commands a view of both those places. Of course, it is on the railroad. It contains 166 acres of land. This new town has been named Familton, in honor of one of the gentlemen who have an interest in the town site and in thirty-six sections of railroad lands which they have purchased. The gentlemen who own these lands are: J. H. Rushton, secretary of the Fairmont Town Company, Fairmont, Fillmore county, Neb.; J. O. Chase, president First National Bank, Fairmont; Irvin B. Chase, cashier of the same bank; E. C. Sawyer, also of Fairmont, and J. H. McConnell and Wm. Familton, both of Omaha, Neb., and connected with the U. P. railway.

About one hundred families of Dunkards will locate between now and the first of next March at Familton and on the lands extending ten miles north of that place and twenty miles south. It is expected that building will be begun at Familton within a week or two. Baker & Sons, of this place, as will be seen by their advertisement, are agents for that town site, as well as for the lands lying on all sides of it for many miles. Some member of the firm will be out there regularly to see that the requirements of business are met fully.

Concerning Candidates.

Come to think of it, the announcement of Geo. Pinkham as a candidate for county clerk was made last week. Mr. Pinkham has made a good officer. It is our duty to say this much for him. As a man easy of approach and full of kindness for all, his superior is not to be found in Trego county, or, for that matter, in any other part of the great New West. His connection with the financial system of this county is at once intimate and honorable. He has studied as no other man has this feature of our county affairs. All tax payers who care to look see the fruits of his work in Gove county assisting to fill our county treasury. This matter, we say, was pushed by Mr. Pinkham, and carried to success, in the face of the opinion of the attorney general to the effect that it was unconstitutional to tax unorganized counties, and after Ness county had ceased to levy a tax in her municipal township of Lane county.

—Lon A. Fisher, the rushing Collyer and Oakley merchant, accompanied by Mrs. Fisher and the little boy, drove down from Collyer last Saturday afternoon, ordered a lot of job printing, and returned home in the beautiful evening. Mr. Fisher is one of a town company who have changed the name of Cleveland, in St. John county, to Oakley, and intend to build up a town. Mr. Fisher, for a number of months past, has conducted a very extensive lumber business at that place.

—Mrs. A. Wahl is highly incensed at the item from the Golden Belt, which we copied in our issue of last week. She authorizes us to denounce as wholly untrue the statement that she raked in the dimes telling fortunes at Grinnell. She avers that she merely told the fortunes of some of the young folks, and did it altogether for fun. In fact, Mrs. Wahl don't like the general tenor of the item referred to. Our reporter gallantly promised to set her right before the World and the rest of mankind.

—W. F. Pagett knows how to drum for custom. He beats with the advertising sticks. Ogallah is a good place for a store, and if Pagett don't stop advertising in the way he has started out, he is going to rake in a great lot of big, round dollars, which otherwise would go to Ellis or come to Wa-Keeney. People like to go to the store of a merchant who thinks enough of them to issue invitations. They know that such a man, after inviting them, will do everything possible to please them. This is good, straight talk, free from nonsense, and there is not a judicious advertiser who does not believe it. We expect to be suited when we trade with Pagett.

—B. E. Grim, last Monday, near Geo. Galloway's place, in the Saline valley, became entangled in a rope which had a horse at one end of it. The animal dragged him about 150 yards, fairly covering him with raw spots or bruises. He is so fortunate as to be able to move around a little now with the aid of a crutch.

—Mr. J. H. Rushton has gone to Fairmont, Neb., but will be back here in the course of a few weeks.

—All persons knowing themselves indebted to us will please call and settle their account or make satisfactory arrangements concerning the same, as we wish to close up our business immediately.
